

CALL FOR PARTICIPANTS PLWHIV/AIDS Mentorship Pilot Project

The Canadian AIDS Society (CAS) is looking for PLWHIV/AIDS who want to get involved and gain experience in advisory committee work.

WHAT

The mentorship project will offer support to PLWHIV/AIDS less experienced with advisory committee work who want to be part of the National Advisory Committee and advise CAS in the development of the Webinar Series: Practice Issues in HIV/AIDS Prevention, Treatment & Support project. PLWHIV/AIDS will be matched with a mentor from the advisory committee who will provide guidance and support as needed throughout the committee term. They will be paid a small honorarium as a thank you for their time and effort

WHO

The mentorship project is for PLWHIV/AIDS who meet the following criteria:

- Self-identify as HIV+
- Have previously accessed HIV/AIDS services in a community setting
- Have an interest in capacity-building and community development for service providers working in HIV/AIDS
- Have limited or no experience as a member of an advisory committee

HOW

If you would like to participate, please send a letter of interest, and include: 1) a brief bio, 2) why you are interested in the mentorship pilot project, 3) an outline of any previous involvement in the HIV/AIDS community; to:
