

THE YOUNG WOMEN'S HIV PREVENTION TOOLKIT

The Canadian AIDS Society is pleased to provide you with a copy of the HIV Prevention Toolkit for Young Women, containing five fact sheets about safer sex, communication, disclosure, vertical transmission and harm reduction.

The following people served as members of our Young Women's Community Advisory Committee. We are grateful to them, and their organizations, for their contributions.

- Shayna Buhler, ICAD
- Nicole Ciza, Youth Expert
- Michelle Evans, AIDS Coalition of Nova Scotia
- Elyse Kornhauser, Blood Ties Four Directions Centre
- Jessica Lyon, ICAD
- Meenakshi Manno, AIDS Vancouver
- Jamilla Mohamud, Africans in Partnership Against AIDS
- Jessica Prominski, Hamilton Health Sciences
- Arielle Shuman, HIV Edmonton
- Jessi Taylor, AIDS New Brunswick
- Andrea Westbrook, Toronto People With AIDS Foundation

We are indebted to the following people for providing expert feedback on various drafts of the fact sheets:

- Dr. Jason Brophy, Children's Hospital of Eastern Ontario
- Cecile Kazatchkine, Canadian HIV/AIDS Legal Network
- Logan Kennedy, Interdisciplinary HIV Pregnancy Research Group
- Marc-André LeBlanc
- San Patten, San Patten and Associates

Thank you to MWDesign, who designed the fact sheets, and to Jean Dussault and Josée Dussault who translated them. They all went above and beyond.

Appreciation to Jeff Potts, Lynne Belle-Isle, Kim Thomas, John Sharp and Monique Doolittle-Romas of the Canadian AIDS Society for all their help, and to Marlo Sleiman, CAS summer student, for research assistance.

Suggested citation:
Scruton, S., 2015.
HIV Prevention Toolkit
for Young Women.
Ottawa: Canadian
AIDS Society.

For additional copies,
please contact the
Canadian AIDS Society
at info@cdnaids.ca,
or download them
from the website:
www.cdnaids.ca.

Ce document est également disponible en français

© 2015, Canadian AIDS Society